

Capturing the Essence of Flowers and Gardens in Watercolor

Workshop: Callaway Gardens in Pine Mountain, GA

Saturday-Sunday, April 21 & 22, 2012 10:00 am – 4:00 pm each day

This workshop includes two days of painting from direct observation of nature. One day will focus on painting flowers from a close up view and the other will focus on flowers in a garden setting to learn how to paint flowers in a landscape scene. However, students are free to paint whatever subject inspires them at the designated painting sites. Weather permitting, we'll be outdoors. In case of rain, we'll paint from fresh flowers indoors.

Pat Fiorello, professional artist and instructor known for her vibrant watercolors inspired by nature, will expose students to a variety of approaches for painting flowers. Topics include understanding shapes and colors of flowers and foliage, special challenges of painting flowers and simplifying composition while painting outdoors. Pat offers a variety of teaching approaches including demonstrations, instruction, critique and individual coaching while students paint on location. If you have never taken a painting workshop before, this weekend workshop is a fun and easy way to get started. All levels of painters welcome.

Fee: $225 for weekend workshop ("Saturday only" option is available for $125.)
