

Paint Italy!

September 24- October 1, 2015

Experience the beauty, romance and serenity of Lake Garda, Italy's hidden gem!

Join artist, instructor & author Pat Fiorello for a painting workshop & artists retreat in Northern Italy, one of the most picturesque and tranquil spots in Italy. After a one-night stay in the elegant city of Verona, we travel to the town of Gargnano along the shore of Lake Garda. We will stay at the peaceful monastery of San Tomaso, with tiered gardens and a cloistered courtyard, on a hill overlooking the lake and two small towns, both within walking distance. The views are simply enchanting!

One of Italy's best kept secrets, Lake Garda lies between Milan and Venice, with Switzerland to the north, yet the climate is temperate and mild supporting the unusual Mediterranean vegetation (vineyards, olive groves and citrus orchards), which has more in common with the southern regions of Italy. You will see lots of spectacular vistas of the lake with mountains beyond, gardens, small villages etc.

Artists of all mediums and levels are welcome and will be enriched by this experience.

Dates: Thursday, September 24- Thursday, October 1, 2015

Program fee: $2,350. There is a discounted early enrollment price of $2,250 for artists registering with a deposit of $500 by 3/1/15

Program includes daily instruction (Pat will provide demonstrations, instruction, critiques and personal guidance throughout the week), hotel and dinner in Verona, lodging at San Tomaso for the remainder of the stay (double occupancy; single rooms available for supplement upon request), all breakfasts and dinners prepared by a private chef and transfer between Lake Garda and Verona for arrival and Desanzano or Milan departure. Airfare is NOT included.
