

Paint Tuscany!

September 20-27, 2014

Spend an amazing week painting the autumn landscape in Italy!

Join artist/instructor Pat Fiorello for a relaxing and inspiring painting workshop and artists' retreat in the Chianti Region of Tuscany, Italy. We will stay in an authentic 12th century monastery, San Fedele, which has been recently restored to modern first class lodging accommodations while retaining an old-world authenticity. We will paint daily, either on site or on short field trips to view charming villages, poppy fields and the beautiful, romantic Tuscan countryside. Artists of all levels and mediums are welcome and will leave enriched by this experience.

Dates: September 20-27, 2014

Program Fee: $2595.

There is an early enrollment price of $2495 for those who register before 1/31/14 with a deposit of $500.

Program includes daily art instruction (demonstrations, instruction, critiques and personal guidance from Pat will be included throughout the week), all breakfasts and dinners in the Tuscan tradition prepared by a private chef, lodging (double occupancy; single rooms may be available for a supplement upon request), local transportation for field excursions including day trip to medieval Siena, transfer from Florence train station to San Fedele upon arrival (9/20) and return to Siena upon completion (9/27).
